THE MAGIC OF MUSIC AND WINE

ROOTSTOCK 2019 Headlining Artists Reveal

IBEYI + FATOUMATA DIAWARA + J.B. DUNCKEL +
JUNGLE BY NIGHT + ADAM NAAS ... more to come...

BURGUNDY, FRANCE (March 2019) – ROOTSTOCK, the Magic of Music and Wine returns this summer for the French holiday Bastille weekend Saturday, July 13 and Sunday, July 14 at Château de Pommard. This year's Rootstock headliner selection boasts a wide variety of styles from world music, jazz, electro, pop, in attempts to capture the spirit of modern music in one cohesive lineup. The Discovery Stage artists are scheduled to be announced in the coming weeks.

Ibeyi - The music of this French duo covers impressive ground, combining multiple languages (English, French, Spanish, and Yoruba), traditional percussion techniques, with an added elegance of jazz and electronic sampling. In just a short span from their initial 2014 single, they've made their way to playing major international festivals, returning this year to Coachella again.

Fatoumata Diawara - 2019 has already been an exciting year with Diawara's Grammy performance and two nominations for Best World Music Album and Best Dance Recording. An exhilarating blend of traditional African music, funk, and jazz, Fatoumata's singing and guitar playing are not to be missed.

Jungle by Night - This modern Afro-beat, jazz, and funk group from Amsterdam bring a fresh new creative element to the establishment of jazz, putting them on the frontline of musical innovation today. Jungle by Night's 2018 album "Livingstone" captures the group's trajectory towards fusing electronic sounds with a jazz vocabulary. Jungle by Night has also appeared at major festivals such as Pinkpop, Glastonbury.

J.B. Dunckel - From the French duo "AIR," Dunckel's solo work is an impressive combination of electronic music and informed musicianship, as Dunckel draws musical inspiration from both classical and electronic music pioneers. JB Dunckel's 2018 album is self-described as "futuristic and optimistic, (a) contemporary sound odyssey."

Adam Naas - This up and coming Parisian singer, has drawn comparisons to Prince and Michael Jackson from the press. He manages to project both an introspective and powerful voice in his music. Both his 2016 single “Fading Away” and his 2018 album “The Love Album” have received critical acclaim.

With only 1,500 Rootstock Passes available, including 25 Platinum and 50 VIP Passes, these two days of music among the vines is the exclusive summer vacation of a lifetime. Just two hours from Paris and Geneva, and 90 minutes from Lyon, one of the nation’s most popular tourist hotspots, Château de Pommard is ideally placed to receive international travelers.

About Rootstock Music

ROOTSTOCK celebrates the magic of music and wine in the heart of Burgundy. Located on the iconic grounds of Château de Pommard, the main festival and series of annual concerts attract musical talent from around the world to rock, swing, and groove among the vines. Recent lineups welcomed Keziah Jones, Jungle, Breakbot, Electro Deluxe, Isaac Delusion, Soul Jazz Orchestra, Nina Attal, and many more. ROOTSTOCK's mission supports young artists by providing performance venues, recording facilities, and mentoring with successful veterans to help launch their careers.

About Château de Pommard

Made by Nature in France. Every year, consumers and professionals from more than 80 countries around the world visit Château de Pommard to learn about the world of wine from Wine and Spirit Education Trust (WSET) professionals and taste the purest expressions of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from villages along the Route des Grands Crus. From the grape to the glass, guests experience Clos Marey-Monge, a geological marvel, and home to seven distinct clay and limestone rich plots, now protected as one of the world heritage Climats of Burgundy by UNESCO. Founded in 1726, Château de Pommard combines three hundred years of savoir-faire and the innovative vision of the Famille Carabello-Baum for the future. The recent conversion to biodynamic viticulture is producing wines infused with an unmistakable sense of place while preserving the planet we live on. Wine lovers and critics agree the family's cuvées are honest and energetic, displaying more intensity on the nose and extra vibration on the palate.
